

The Baptism of St. Paul—The Christian Paul—is one of four striking new images created to commemorate the birth of St. Paul.

Pope Benedict XVI has called for a Jubilee year to mark the occasion, noting, “He lived and worked for Christ; he suffered and died for him. How current is his example today.”

The occasion of the 2,000th anniversary of the Apostle to the Gentiles is an ideal moment in time to see St. Paul as you have never seen him before—and introduce him to those who have yet to meet and understand the man who “turned the world upside down” (Acts 17:6, RSV) with his teachings.

Four original portraits of St. Paul have been created by prize-winning artist Jacqueline Schatzle Halliburton to commemorate the bi-millennium anniversary of St. Paul’s birth. The focal point is a remarkable close up look at St. Paul—the Warrior of God—with a sword tightly gripped in one hand and parchments clutched in the other.

This picture captures the man born to great wealth who both cruelly persecuted and then boldly embraced Christianity. Other images show the Baptism of St. Paul (The Christian Paul); the Preaching of St. Paul at the Areopagus (The Evangelist Paul) and St. Paul Under House Arrest (The Apostle Paul).

In researching these views, the artist studied material on the person of Paul, his dress, appearance and mannerisms, along with scholarly research into the culture and dress of first-century Palestine. The result are images that can be shared with parishioners, students, friends and all whose lives will be enriched by seeing St. Paul in a new, transforming light.

Baptism of St. Paul poster

All four images—the Portrait of St. Paul, the Baptism of St. Paul, The Preaching of St. Paul at the Areopagus and St. Paul Under House Arrest—are included in the items below. They are ideal for catechizing, teaching and engaging all age groups in multiple settings.

Posters are suitable for framing (12” x 16”) and calling proper attention to the Jubilee Year. Display in the church narthex, school and home. Each set includes one catechetical, teaching guide. Mailing tube included.

Prayer Cards in bookmark size (4 1/8” x 5 1/2”) suitable for all ages are appropriate for a religion class, faith formation session, group gathering or gift. Each order includes a catechetical, teaching guide.

St. Paul Note Cards make great gift items for many occasions, ideal for teachers, catechists and students and all who wish to share the Apostle’s remarkable life. Card folds to 4” x 5 1/4” to fit in companion envelopes. A catechetical, teaching guide accompanies each order.

 Philippians 2:8-11

Loving and merciful God, your great love and transformed the life of St. Paul.

Send your Holy Spirit to enter deeply into our lives,
 and live in from our own demands,
 so that we might be free to serve you.

Keep us mindful that our lives are meant to be lived for your Kingdom.

Search our hearts,
 and transform our weaknesses into all that we may be devoted to you in all things.

Give us the heart of a servant
 so that we may serve you with the wisdom and spirit of St. Paul.

What does God use as the greatest lovingly at the many parts of my life?
 Knowing that my life is meant to be lived for God,
 what is God's purpose for my life?
