

2010 NCEA Convention, Minneapolis Convention Center

In addition to the general sessions, events, and worship, the following specialized sessions will be offered to assist with the work of your board and administration.

Tuesday, April 6

Development Sessions for Your Board & SPICE

	Room 205 A	Room 205 B	Auditorium 1	Room 202 A Marketing & Enrollment	SPICE: Configuring New Governance Models – 202 B
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm	The Role and Authority of the Catholic Education Board, Especially in Relation to the Administration Regina Haney, NCEA	Liquidated Damages, Tuition Agreements, Parent Agreements, and Other Timely Legal Issues for Board Members Mary Angela Shaughnessy, SCN, Louisville, KY		Use of Technology in Enrollment Management	The Journey and the Dream: New Governance Model for Catholic Urban Education Rita Brink, OSB, Consortium of the Alliance for Catholic Urban Education, Diocese of Covington, KY
3:00 pm – 4:15 pm	Life Before and After Instant Parent Notification: A Diocesan-Level Perspective Kelly Branaman & Ken Gaughan, Archdiocese of Washington, & Vicki Conrad	Reconfigured Schools = Reconfigured Governance Helen Dahlman, Risen Christ School, Minneapolis; Diane Lee, Shakopee Area Schools; and Fr. Pat Walsh, Sioux City, IA	Keeping Policy Current Regarding Use of the Internet and Social Networking Media Mary Angela Shaughnessy, SCN, Louisville, KY	Viability-Sustainability-Growth: Embracing Best Practices in Enrollment Management	The Diocese of Monterey Board's Plan to Form Effective Local Boards Utilizing Parents, Parishioners, Community Members, and Canonical Administrators Kim Pryzbylski, Diocese of Monterey, CA

Wednesday, April 7

Development Sessions for Your Board & SPICE

	Room 205 A	Room 205 B	Auditorium 2	Room 202 A Marketing & Enrollment	SPICE: Configuring New Governance Models – 202 B
10:45 am – 12:00 pm	11:00 - 12:45 pm OUTSTANDING BOARD AWARDS LUNCHEON Hilton Hotel, Marquette 3,4,5			Marching and Marketing to a New Drummer: Enrollment Management in Our Catholic Schools Mary Meyer, St. Marys, PA	Using Regional Foundations and Consortiums to Support Multiple Catholic Schools Sue Mecham & Joe Womac, Fulcrum Foundation, Seattle, WA
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm	Maximizing the Benefits of IDEA by Understanding the Consultation Process Pamela Allen, U.S. Department of Education	A Strategic Plan that Did Not Sit on the Shelf Carol Crockett and Art DeCabooter, Xavier College Preparatory, Phoenix, AZ	How to Help a Bullied Child...and the Bully: Specific Strategies from Former Victim Turned Activist and New York Times Bestselling Author Jodee Blanco	Change: Isn't it about time we looked in the mirror and recognized our audience engages differently than our parents? Ed Hardiman, Danvers, MA	Xaverian Brothers Sponsored Schools Governance Model Alice Hession, Xaverian Brothers Schools, Baltimore, MD
3:00 pm – 4:15 pm	Federal Education Programs: Here's How to Get Them Maureen Dowling, U.S. Department of Education	Keeping the Catholic Education Board Focused on Its Role and Mission, and Avoiding Common Perils and Pitfalls Jane Nordin, St. Joseph School, West St. Paul, MN	How to Help a Bullied Child...and the Bully: Specific Strategies from Former Victim Turned Activist and New York Times Bestselling Author Jodee Blanco	Targeting Your Enrollment Market: Watching the Signs	Board Committee Structure, Membership, and Functioning for Success Jeff Glenn and Rob Rogers, St. Mary's High School Board, Phoenix, AZ

Thursday, April 8

Development Sessions for Your Board

	Room 205 A	Room 205 B	Extra Rooms	Room 202 A
9:00 am – 10:15 am	What Makes Us Catholic in the 21st Century? Dr. Christopher McAtee, University of St. Mary/ Mundelein Seminary, IL	Effective Board Leadership Strengthens All Aspects of the School Karen Barreras and Fr. Agustin, Little Flower School Board, Reno, NV	Auditorium 2 How to Help a Bullied Child...and the Bully: Specific Strategies from Former Victim Turned Activist and New York Times Bestselling Author Jodee Blanco	Branding: Positioning Your School in the Marketplace Perry Sangalli, President, Saint Xavier High School, Louisville, KY
10:45 am – 12:00 pm	Growing the Effective Board Member Stephanie Welling, Archdiocese of St. Louis	A National Examination of Innovative Approaches to Providing Systemic School-Based Mental Health Programs in Catholic Schools Erik Goldschmidt, Boston College	Room 202 B Bearing Witness: Anti-Semitism, the Holocaust and Contemporary Issues Ed Alster & Luna Kaufman, ADL, New York	Proven Ways to Create a Motivated and Committed Board Frederick and Fay Lenz, Simsbury, CT
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm	How Strategic Planning Can Help Prepare for Financial and Other Crises and Enhance Curriculum James Adams, Chaminade College Preparatory Board of Directors, Chatsworth, CA	Boston Catholic School Connects: Addressing the Non-Academic Needs of Urban Catholic School Children from Early Childhood through Middle School Erik Goldschmidt, Boston College		How Your Board Can Strengthen Development/ Advancement Efforts and Produce Tangible Results Frank Donaldson